** Last date for submission of results for end semester evaluation of all courses. And also continuous and end semester evaluations of Thesis/Dissertation/Internship.

All continuous evaluations will be conducted during regular teaching session(s) of the course(s) only.

§ Teaching sessions will continue (if any), and attendance to all volunteers in the events will not be granted due to absence in teaching sessions.

Important Notes:

(1) There are 18 working weeks for each semester in this academic calendar. Out of 18 working weeks, a minimum of fifteen working weeks must be teaching sessions for all courses, two weeks can be continuous evaluations and/or additional teaching sessions (if any), and one week is for end semester evaluation.

(2) It is important to conduct minimum teaching hours in a course in each semester i.e. for 2 credits course(s) minimum teaching hours=30, for 3 credits course(s) minimum teaching hours=45, 4 credits course(s) minimum teaching hours=60. If faculty is unable to find teaching hours during the semester due to holidays or any events/activities to complete the course content, kindly arrange additional teaching sessions on working days/Saturdays.
