

Aim and Scope

Interwoven is a double blind peer reviewed interdisciplinary journal of Navrachana University, published online biannually. The journal covers inherently general topics as well as specialized topics written for readers from wide backgrounds. The effort is to build a strong interdisciplinary academic and research culture in the society.

Regarding review process, there is a strong criteria established for an article to be considered for revision, acceptance or rejection. Every article undergoes check for Plagiarism. Each article is reviewed by three referees.

Interwoven has been granted an e-ISSN number (2581-9275). We strongly encourage faculty, scientists, postdoctoral fellows and research scholars to contribute their scholarly work in the form of research articles, review articles, perspectives, critiques, book reviews and articles in social research. We look forward to expand our authors and readers network and set a benchmark in the process of growth for students, faculty, University and the society at large by spreading awareness about various knowledge domains. We also encourage undergraduate and postgraduate students involved in dissertation work to write journal articles and promote new research ideas to expand their vision beyond standard academic curriculum.
