

Objectives

---

1. To serve as a recognized common platform to disseminate knowledge gathered through research.
2. To develop a Journal with Review norms at par with Journals of National and International repute.
3. To develop an interdisciplinary research spirit among faculty and students.
4. To offer an opportunity to young students to learn art of writing a journal article and peer review process.
5. To give an opportunity to all the researchers to receive critical feedback and improve their quality of research.
6. To document the academic research at all levels in a competitive way which can become a strong reference for other researchers in the field to learn.